

Youthlinks

Youthlinks, an after school program of Broadreach Family & Community Services, will offer a Spring Session of FREE after school clubs at South School, Oceanside Middle School, Oceanside High School, and Thomaston Grammar School.

Youthlinks also hosts a cooking program for the local Soup Kitchen the second Saturday of every month.

Programming will run April 1st through June 14th.

The program is FREE for students.

Families should register via the online links provided below. Paper forms are also available by email or at each school's front office.
